SUMMER AND ALL ITS POSSIBILITIES HAVE ARRIVED

Generally speaking, June is the time when schools dismiss for the summer break, final plans are made for VBS, Mission trips, camps, and vacations. It is also the time when Spring moves into Summer. However, it has been quite a while since I remember the kind of cool, rainy weather this late in the year. It reminded me of something Solomon wrote in the last chapter of Ecclesiastes: “Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, ‘I find no pleasure in them’—before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds return after the rain;” (12:1-2).

I am not to the point of finding no pleasure in these days, but I could use some sunshine! However, coming from growing up years getting to work on my grandad’s farm, I do not want to complain about too much rain. I have to admit that I’ve (sort of) joked about feeling like I had moved to Seattle!

What all is on your schedule for the summer months? I have read or heard about some of our churches plans for VBS, Camps and Mission trips. I would be glad to hear from you about such things that your church will be doing and we always like to report to the rest of the Association the events taking place in our churches.

It is also with a sense of gratitude and rejoicing that the restrictions of the pandemic are loosening and allowing greater ability to enjoy more connectedness and fellowship. Personally, I missed getting to be with many of you in your worship services, either because they were only offered online, or limited participation. It has been such a blessing to be able to attend more services as the Spring months came. I look forward to being with others in the weeks ahead.

Please take some time to relax and refresh with your family—it has been a high pressure and stressful time working through the pandemic. May the Lord bless you and give you strength and peace for the journey He has for you.

I am so glad to be your DOM,
Glenn
